2023 QHRAI Speed Sale

Terms and Conditions

1. Consignment Fee - Consignor agrees to pay QHRAI a consignment fee for each horse consigned in the 2023 QHRAI Speed Sale. The fees are based on the number of horses the consignor consigns and is as follows: 1 - 2 horses $200 (or $250 if paid from proceeds); 3-4 horses $175 (or $225 if paid from proceeds); 5 or more horses $150 (or $200 if paid from proceeds). One contract must be submitted for each horse.
2. Consignor agrees to pay QHRAI a commission fee of 5% of the final bid recognized by the auctioneer or $150 (whichever is greater) if the horse is sold to a bona fide buyer. Consignor may choose to set a reserve for his horse. Consignor is responsible for bidding to this reserve and for bidding on repurchases. Commission fees apply to repurchases. QHRAI reserves the right to publish the name of the final bidder. The repurchase fee is 2% or $150, whichever is greater.
3. Upon execution of the contract, Consignor agrees not to dispose of the horse by private sale. The horse will be offered to the final bidder. Consignor further agrees not to withdraw his horse except in case of serious injury or serious sickness. In the event of serious injury or sickness, Consignor agrees to notify QHRAI within 24 hours of discovery of such sickness or injury. If it becomes necessary to withdraw the horse due to serious injury or sickness, a notarized veterinary statement must be presented to QHRAI at least 24 hours prior to commencement of the first session of this Sale. The veterinary statement shall state the date the horse was first examined and should be specific as to the nature of the horse's problems. If the horse must be withdrawn due to injury, sickness or death, QHRAI will retain the entry fee describe in paragraph 1. There will be no substitutions allowed for horses withdrawn due to injury, sickness or death.
4. Consignor is the sole responsible party for the safety and well-being of his horse until the signing of the Acknowledgment of Purchase form by the final bidder is recognized by the auctioneer. Although QHRAI will make every effort to collect the purchase price, QHRAI is simply the Agent in this transaction. At no time does QHRAI have a pecuniary interest in this horse. The Consignor fully warrants clear title of the horse to the Buyer and thereby represents that there are no encumbrances against the horse. Consignor guarantees to Buyer full, complete and peaceful ownership.
5. This contract shall become part of QHRAI's file. Consignor agrees to receive the horse back as being unsold and shall forfeit entry fee if a qualified veterinarian determines that particular defects were not announced. (See page 1: cribber, cryptorchid, sight defect or bleeder.) In disputed cases involving the defects of a horse (identified above), QHRAI will have the sole right to appoint an expert who shall decide the fact at issue. The decision of the expert shall be binding on Consignor and Buyer. If the Consignor is determined to be at fault, he agrees to pay the examination fee. In case the horse is rejected by the Buyer as a result of misrepresentation by the Consignor and the rejection is sustained by the expert, the Consignor will pay the full commission owed and forfeit the entry fee.
6. QHRAI reserves the right to reject the sale of any consignment if it considers the horse unfit for sale. QHRAI also reserves the right to (a) determine the order of the sale of all entries, (b) assign stabling facilities as it sees fit, (c) change the time or date of this sale should unforeseen circumstances necessitate such a change, and (d) subject horses to examination by appointed veterinarian prior to sale. Said horse will be sold on his findings. Any horse
