Program Overview

Mares

For a mare to be eligible to produce an Indiana Bred or Sired foal, the mare must enter the state of Indiana AND her Mare Application must be postmarked by November 1 of the year prior to foaling.

If EITHER of these requirements are not met, the mare may still produce an Indiana Bred foal if she enters Indiana prior to giving birth and a mare application is submitted to the IHRC office within 10 days of the foal's birth. The mare and foal must remain in the state for 30 days and the mare must be bred back to an Indiana Sire who is registered with the IHRC. A list of current registered Indiana Sires is available online at: www.in.gov/hrc/tb/registered-horses/stallions/. The requirement to breed back to an Indiana stallion is waived for mares purchased at a public auction prior to December 31 in the year prior to foaling.

Incentives to purchase a mare which has never been registered with the IHRC are available. Please visit our website at www.in.gov/hrc/tb/mare-incentive-program-new-in-2020/.

Once the foal is born it must also be registered with the IHRC in order to be an Indiana Bred or Sired horse.

Foals

For a foal to be an Indiana Bred, the mare must meet the conditions above AND a Foal Application must be submitted. The Foal Application must be received by the IHRC within one year of the foaling date in order to avoid late fees. Jockey Club Papers are not required when submitting your Foal Application. This application may be submitted on the day the foal is born.

For a foal to be Indiana Sired, it must meet all the requirements of an Indiana Bred foal, plus be sired by a registered Indiana Stallion the year the foal was conceived.

Foal Late Fees:

- After the first birthday but before December 31st of the yearling year: $200
- 2 Year Olds: $400
- 3 Year Olds and older: $1,000

Stallions

For a stallion to be a registered Indiana Sire, a Stallion Application must be postmarked on or before the deadline of October 15 of the year prior to the year of the breeding season.

An Indiana Sire may only breed mares in the state of Indiana for that year's breeding season.

Stallion Late Fees:

- Any stallion applying after the deadline must pay a $250 late fee. This fee is waived if it is the first year the stallion has stood in the state of Indiana.

Submit Your Applications Online!
