2022 HALL OF FAME HORSE INDUCTEE

WH Design By Dash

When we decided to go to the 2012 QHRAI sale at New Castle, it was mostly for one reason. That was to look at the son of Brimmstone, out of the great mare Fast Mans Dash, named WH Design By Dash.

We were just finishing up the 2012 race year where we had purchased WH Johnnie Boy Red. Johnnie Boy was also out of Fast Mans Dash.

Wh Johnnie Boy had a tremendous year winning 4 races including the richest purse in QH racing at that time, The Jaguar Rocket Stakes. Johnnie Boy a $7,000.00 purchase, ended up earning over $133,000.00 for his career.

So it just made sense that we take a chance on WH Design by Dash, at the price of $6,700.00.

Little did we know what was in store for us with this horse.

He had a really good 2 yr old year in 2013, winning $67,002.00, including second in the Gordon Mobley Futurity. I remember at one point he had won over $57,000.00 before he broke his maiden in a trial. Additionally, he finished third in both the Jaguar Rocket, and the Miss Roxie Little futurity.

As a derby horse he remained very respectable making the finals of every derby.

But when he turned into a 4 yr old he sealed his place as one of the greatest to ever run here in Indiana. Before his career was over in 2020, he had won the Born Runner stakes 3 times, the Bob Woodard stakes, and the Speed Sale Stakes with a lifetime earnings of $436,808.00.

This would be life changing money for most, and certainly was for our family. Certainly we were blessed to not just have one but two horses like these two great horses.

Dash is now working part time 3-4 days a week on a race horse training center in Louisiana as a pony horse. He has a very good life which he so much deserves.

2022 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEE

Mike Smith

Mike Smith, former Executive Director of the Indiana Horse Racing Commission (IHRC), has been selected as the latest inductee for the Quarter Horse Association of Indiana Hall of Fame. During his tenure at the helm of the IHRC until 2019, he provided a different approach to regulating the industry while maintaining the highest level of integrity.

Mike was born and raised in Rensselaer, Ind. He graduated from Rensselaer Central Schools in 1971 and graduated from International College in 1973 with an Associate's Degree in Business Administration. He also holds licenses, certificates and degrees in insurance, real estate brokerage and financial counseling.

Mike's government relations include more than five terms as a State Representative, two years serving as Assistant Caucus Chairman and four years as Republican Floor Leader, which is the number two Leadership position in the caucus. He was always a big supporter of legislation to protect the horse racing industry. Along with his work in the horse racing industry, he also held positions in the gaming business as Executive Director of the Casino Association of Indiana where he worked closely with the IGC and ATC on rules and standards for the industry.

Mike also served more than 12 years on the Problem Gaming Board and led the efforts to ensure viability for the Indiana Council on Problem Gaming and served as a liaison between the Indiana Gaming Commission and involved state agencies. He also organized recommendations for the final rule on the transfer of ownership of the tracks while doing what was best for the program.

Mike has been recognized for his hard work and dedication by receiving several outstanding awards including:

Government Leader of the Year 1995,
Indiana State Chamber of Commerce

Champion of Small Business,
Indiana Small Business Council

Legislator of the Year 1995,
Insurance Institute of Indiana

Statesmanship Award,
House Democratic Caucus, 2000

Outstanding support of the Judiciary,
Indiana Judges Association

Defender of Freedom,
National Rifle Association, 1996

Sagamore of the Wabash,
Governor O'Bannon, 2002

Sagamore of the Wabash,
Governor Pence, 2016

Indiana Standardbred Association
Pinnacle Award, 2018

Mike's hobbies outside of gaming and horse racing include flying, Martial arts (Black Belt 2008) and spending time with his family and three grandchildren.
